

Learner of the Week – Friday 6th March 2026

Butterflies

Nina-Mari – She loves listening to stories enthusiastically and she participates in phonics amazingly. Well done!

Ladybirds

Lizzie – She has shown so much effort and enthusiasm in phonics this week and made an incredible effort with her World Book Day costume.

Squirrels

Elliott – he is always so excited to share with the class what he has been reading at home and did really well this week when he was asked to read to the class. Well done!

Hedgehogs

Rory – he always talks about the amazing stories he reads and he has great enthusiasm for reading!

Owls

Matilda – she has a love of books and reading which she loves to share with others.

Robins

Xander – He has shown exceptional engagement in all his learning and sharing his ideas with his peers this week.